Philom Bios Officially Opens New Facility

SASKATOON, SK— Philom Bios Inc. of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan officially opened its new 105,000 square foot facility on Tuesday, January 10, 2006. Don Atchison, Mayor of Saskatoon cut the ribbon along with Calvin Sonntag, President/CEO of Philom Bios and John Cross, Chairman of the Board in front of hundreds of customers, employees, stakeholders, and shareholders. The $6.3 million facility will house Philom Bios' manufacturing, research, agronomy, marketing and corporate employees, and will allow greater integration of the company's activities under one roof as they continue with their on-going expansion.

"We recognize that, on our 25th Anniversary, we owe a debt of gratitude to our customers and the stakeholders who have supported us over the years," said Calvin Sonntag, President/CEO of Philom Bios. "To our customers - we are humbled by your continued and growing confidence in our products and people. We will continue to serve your needs by bringing you fertility efficiency technologies that help improve your bottom line."

Farmers can enter to win one of 10 prizes of $2,500 as part of Philom Bios' 25th Anniversary prize sweepstakes. Simply log on to www.philombios.com to enter.

"Farming has never been more challenging and efficiency never more important. This new facility allows us to better serve the needs of our customers by developing and marketing fertility efficiency tools that deliver higher returns for our customers, and a more sustainable way of farming," said Sonntag. "That commitment is reflected by the investment that we have made here in Saskatoon."
